SUNDAY
OCTOBER 18, 1953

It had rained hard during the night and the sky was overcast all day. This time we were on the French side of the Rhine and had even better shooting than yesterday, winding up with 211 pieces of game divided between the same varieties as before.

E. and I left at five o'clock to take the Strasbourg train at 6:20, which put us into Paris about 11:30 tonight.
